

AMERICAN DELEGATION OF SAVOY ORDERS

St. Lazarus Commemorative Mass and Dinner – March 1, 2011

On March 1, members, friends and guests of the American Delegation Savoy Orders participated in the sixth annual St. Lazarus Commemorative Mass at the University Church of St. Joseph, Avenue of the Americas, New York City. Special prayers were also said in memory of members, friends and family of the American Delegation who had passed away since the last Mass. Comm. Very Rev. John P. McGuire, OP, the principal celebrant and Delegation Chaplain, was joined at the altar by three Delegation members: Uff. Rev. Michael Lankford-Stokes, and Cav. Very Rev. Canon Matthew Mauriello with assisting Deacon Uff. Dott. Deacon Thomas B. Rich. Rev. Dennis McManus, assistant to H.E. Archbishop Timothy Dolan of New York, also was a concelebrant by special invitation. Scriptural readings were delivered by Dama Dott.ssa Carol Stokes and Deacon Uff. Dott. Thomas B. Rich. Dama di Comm. Cristina Grassi and Comm. Marco Grassi brought up the gifts at the Offertory. The homily was given by Comm. Very Rev. John P. McGuire, OP.

Thanks to Comm. The Very Rev. John P. McGuire O.P, our celebrant of the Mass, for providing the hospitality of his parish church; to Comm. Avv. L'On. Pasquale Menna, for organizing the procession, the ceremonials and the program; and to Comm. Joseph Sciame, for assisting in coordinating the evening. Thanks to all who attended these memorable events.
