Tokyo, 26 May — 450 GUESTS PARTICIPATED IN THE THIRD ANNUAL EVENT OF THE JAPAN DELEGATION BENEFITING YOUNG ARTISTS AND “THE ROYAL HOUSE OF SAVOY EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM”.

The gala dinner organized by the Japan Delegation at the Chinzanso Hotel in Tokyo took place on Saturday 26 May at the presence of H.R.H. the Prince of Piedmont and Venice Emanuele Filiberto of Savoy, President of the Grand Magistral Council of the Dynastic Orders of the Royal House of Savoy. The evening provided musical entertainment and demonstrations of Olympic judo. The American Delegate Knight Grand Cross Carl J. Morelli, Esq. led the members and guests of the American Delegation in the convivial event.

The gala dinner was preceded by the introduction to H.R.H. Prince Emanuele Filiberto of the new members of the Order of Saint Maurice and Lazarus and of the Order of Merit of Savoy, among whom there is renowned the famous pop singer Atsushi Exile and the architect Kengo Kuma, who will design the new Tokyo stadium for the 2020 Olympics.

The August Prince subsequently illustrated the “Royal House of Savoy Educational Program”, which was started by the Japan Delegation last year and has now come to its second edition. The course aims to propose and spread the values of chivalrous tradition in modern society, from elementary school to university. The initiative achieved significant results, with sixty-eight students completing the first edition of the course.

Furthermore, the Delegation has begun to promote an art foundation to support young emerging artists by establishing the “Bacon Award” and the “Tokyo Award”. The second edition of the award ceremony is scheduled for October of this year.

The evening featured the participation of the Senzoku Music University Orchestra accompanied by traditional Japanese instruments.
